Addresses marked '+' were corrected by inserting the ZIP or replacing an incorrect ZIP. USPS regulations require that automation-compatible mail display the correct ZIP.

Addresses marked '++' were redirected to the recipient's preferred mailing address pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 342(f)/Fed.R.Bank.PR.2002(g)(4).

Addresses marked '#' were identified by the USPS National Change of Address system as requiring an update. While the notice was still deliverable, the notice recipient was advised to update its address with the court immediately.

Addresses marked '##' were identified by the USPS National Change of Address system as undeliverable. Notices will no longer be delivered by the USPS to these addresses; therefore, they have been bypassed. The debtor's attorney or pro se debtor was advised that the specified notice was undeliverable.

Debtor(s)

The undersigned trustee, Amy Mitchell, moves to settle and compromise the following described dispute upon the following terms:

The Trustee proposes to enter into a Joint Prosecution and Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") with Duncan Robertson, Dave Newton, and any other similarly situated individual creditors who agree to its terms (the "Creditor Group"). The individuals in the Creditor Group loaned the Debtor substantial sums specifically intended to fund the Debtor's project to publish and sell to Costco Wholesale Corporation a McCormick & Schmick's Cookbook/Gift Card/DVD package for the 2008 holiday season (the "2008 Costco Project"). McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurants, Inc. and/or its affiliate(s) ("M&S") allegedly misappropriated the 2008 Costco Project and its proceeds from the Debtor for little or no consideration. Then, in 2009, M&S purportedly obtained a global release from the Debtor of any and all claims against M&S, again for no consideration (the "Release").

The Trustee, on behalf of the Estate, and the Creditor Group believe that they have valuable claims against M&S, including but not limited to claims arising from the 2008 Costco Project and the Release, and possibly additional valuable claims arising out of or related to the 2008 Costco Project and the Release that may be asserted against other parties (collectively the "Claims"). The Trustee contends that the claims of the Estate are broader and more expansive than the claims of the Creditor Group and, as a result of the Debtor's bankruptcy case, supersede the Creditor Group's claims. However, the Estate does not have the funds to effectively prosecute the Claims. Therefore, the Trustee and the Creditor Group wish to settle the dispute and "pool" and jointly prosecute the Claims. Accordingly, in exchange for a non-refundable payment of $15,000 to the Estate (receipt of which is hereby acknowledged); paying the greater of the first $25,000 or 10% of any net recovery

(i.e., after payment of fees and costs, including reimbursement to the Creditor Group of the fees and costs advanced); subordinating their proofs of claims to all other creditors; indemnifying and holding the Estate harmless from any claims or damages arising from the Agreement or the Claims; and fully funding the costs and fees and otherwise bearing all risk of the litigation of the Claims, including all claims of the Estate – the Creditor Group shall receive the remainder of the net recovery of the litigation.

The Creditor Group shall manage the day-to-day prosecution of the Claims, with oversight by the Trustee. However, the Trustee shall continue to hold all rights to the claims of the Estate and shall have sole and exclusive authority to settle the Claims, subject to notice to creditors and approval of the Court.

The Trustee believes that, in her business judgment, the proposed joint prosecution agreement is reasonable, fair and equitable, and in the best interests of the Estate. The Estate does not have the resources to advance the fees and costs of litigation with M&S, and the Trustee expects the Claims will be strongly contested. This agreement provides a guaranteed recovery of $15,000, with a share of the net proceeds.
